Rc: United States v. Lazaro Moreno
07 Cr. 1124 (SAS)

Your Honor:

I am requesting that the sentence of Mr. Moreno, currently scheduled for Tuesday, April 1, 2008 be adjourned until sometime after April 28, 2008. On Wednesday, March 25, 2008, Mr. Moreno was sentenced to one year in jail by New York County Supreme Court. Mr. Moreno was remanded after sentencing.

Because he had already served approximately 7 months on this case in pre-trial detention before being released on bail, Mr. Moreno is scheduled to complete his sentence on April 28, 2008. I am requesting an adjournment because Mr. Moreno has strongly indicated his desire to complete his New York State sentence before being sentenced in the instant matter. In addition, because he is in state custody, there is a substantial practical difficulty in securing Mr. Moreno's appearance for April 1, 2008.

The government does not object to the request for an adjournment.

Respectfully submitted,

Mark B. Gombiner
Attorney for Lazaro Moreno

cc: A.U.S.A. Marissa Mo'le

Defendant's sentence is hereby adjourned to Tuesday, May 6, 2008, at 4:00 pm.
